ABSTRACT

Implementation of the values of dasa dharma in the formation of the character of discipline and responsibility in students at State Aliyah Mandrasah (MAN) 4 Karawang (descriptive studies on extracurricular scouts), and the process of implementing the character of discipline and responsibility, through programs carried out by the scout movement of MAN 4 Karawang. The approach used in this research is a qualitative approach with a descriptive method of extracurricular Scouts at MAN 4 Karawang. Data collection is done through observation, interviews and documentation techniques. The results of the study revealed that the process of implementing the dasa dharma values at MAN 4 Karawang was carried out through activities carried out at MAN 4 Karawang scouts, such as routine training activities and other activities included in the work program. The implementation of the dasa dharma values at MAN 4 Karawang scouts revealed that in every activity at MAN 4 Karawang scouts both inside the school environment and outside it was always based on Dasa Dharma values, this was due to adjusting to the objectives of the scouting movement itself which was contained in the Dasa Dharma values. The AD and ART of the scout movement are for character education. After the members took part in the training process and other activities at the Man 4 Karawang scouts, the process of implementing the character of discipline and responsibility through the values of the Dasa Dharma in the Scouts of MAN 4 Karawang revealed that every activity prioritizes the values of Discipline and responsibility in accordance with the values of the Dasa Dharma. one of them is through SKU testing activities. Thus, it can be concluded that the implementation of the character of discipline and responsibility in MAN 4 Karawang scouts is very good, which always implements the values of Dasa Dharma.
